Apply online

You can find all the details online as well as the opportunity to apply directly.

Your tasks

- You are choosing a profession with a future in an extremely varied industry.
- You will receive comprehensive basic training with us. From menu planning and the preparation of high-quality raw materials to serving - in our public staff restaurant, you will learn everything a qualified chef needs to know. Of course, compliance with hygiene, occupational safety and sustainability requirements is also very important to us.
- We offer regular working hours (our restaurant is usually closed in the evenings) and a dedicated vocational training and kitchen team that will provide you with professional support and encouragement.

What you bring with you

- Completed primary school
- Enjoy working with food and a careful approach to work
- Physical fitness and manual dexterity

What we offer

Work-life balance

We offer 35 vacation days so that you have enough time to recover and are then fit for work and school again.

Catering

Catering is very important to us: you can enjoy freshly prepared food in our staff canteen, a lunch menu including soup and salad, water & tea and free fruit as well as high-quality products at greatly reduced prices in our outlet.

Mobility

Benefit from convenient public transport connections, attractive ticket subsidies and ample parking facilities in the multi-storey car park.

Professional development opportunities

We cover the costs of your vocational school materials and contribute CHF 700 towards a notebook of your choice. We also support the vocational baccalaureate for apprenticeships with a federal certificate and offer you exciting opportunities for further employment in an international environment once you have completed your apprenticeship.
