

Head of Financial Accounting

Are you a reliable and committed person with sound experience in financial accounting? Do you like to take on responsibility, work in a structured manner and maintain an overview even when dealing with complex issues? If so, this role offers you the opportunity to utilise your expertise in a targeted manner. You will be responsible for all aspects of financial accounting - including preparing financial statements and ensuring correct processes. As the central point of contact for internal and external stakeholders, you will bring clarity to financial issues and support the management with a sound basis for decision-making.
