

Production worker / Production worker / Butcher

We are looking for motivated butchers or production employees with experience in the food industry for our site in Churwalden. Together with our team, you will produce high-quality Bündnerfleisch - a traditional product that is created with care, craftsmanship and quality. Production work is varied and physically demanding, which is precisely why it offers a varied daily routine in a strong team. If you like practical work, take responsibility and enjoy high-quality food, then you've come to the right place.
