

Quality management Logistics Officer

Let's live and breathe quality together! Bell Schweiz AG stands for high-quality food and the very highest quality standards. At our modern site in Oensingen – which comprises the Logistics Centre, Slicer Centre and Frozen Foods Centre – we ensure every day that our products are delivered to our customers safely, fresh and on time. To ensure this continues to be the case, we are further expanding our Quality management team. In this varied role, you will take responsibility for Quality assurance in our logistics and production processes and will be involved in all areas of the logistics division. Particular focus is placed on the Slicer Centre, where products are sliced under cleanroom conditions. In this role, you will ensure that our products meet the high quality and safety standards at all times. You will work closely with various Departments and help to continuously develop our quality processes.
