

Farmer (male or female) with a Federal VET Certificate in Poultry Farming

As a Poultry Farmer (EFZ) at Bell Switzerland within the Poultry organisational unit, you will look after parent stock, hatching eggs, hens and broilers on a daily basis. You will feed the animals, ensure a good house climate and look after their health and wellbeing. You'll also monitor the hatching eggs, keep the houses clean and help ensure well-organised operational processes. In this way, you'll make an important contribution to responsible and sustainable food production. With our constant support, you'll take your first steps into working life and become part of the Bell apprentices' community.

What we offer

Work-life balance

We offer 35 vacation days so that you have enough time to recover and are then fit for work and school again.

Catering

Catering is very important to us: you can enjoy freshly prepared food in our staff canteen, a lunch menu including soup and salad, water & tea and free fruit as well as high-quality products at greatly reduced prices in our outlet.

Mobility

Benefit from convenient public transport connections, attractive ticket subsidies and ample parking facilities in the multi-storey car park.

Professional development opportunities

We cover the cost of your school supplies and contribute CHF 700 towards a laptop of your choice. We'll also offer you exciting career prospects in an international environment once you've completed your training, and you'll be able to develop your skills further through training courses at the Coop Training Centre.
